Will Play Here To-Day.

The Bluebirds returned home yesterday, and will meet the Boanoke Goats this afternoon in the first of a series of three games, which are scheduled to be played in Roanoke, but which were, by mutual consent, transferred here.

Richmond's having won two games yesterday, while Lynchburg carried off but one and lost one, places the Bluebirds a little further shead of the Hill Climbers.

Claussen, the new pitcher signed by Petersburg, will not be permitted to play, as he is under the black-list, having jumped a contract with Memphis.

BIG DAY AT BUFFALO. BIG DAY AT BUFFALO.
BUFFALO, N. Y., August 7.—Though no open betting was permitted at the Grand Circuit meeting to-day, the opening day was a success in every particular. The attendance was the largest ever seen at Buffalo Park, on the first day of any meeting, and, save that at Red Ouk, Iowa, last June, the crowd was larger than any other at the trotting meetings held on the bir line this season.

A heavy wind was blowing against the horses coming up the home-stretch, and, under the circumstances, the track was 21-2 to 3 seconds slow. Hand-book dealing, instead of betting was a novelty to the local regulars, and for the first two heats they fought shy of the game. found on the side of the Norfolk and Western railroad, near Disputanta. The body had been so placed as to produce the impression that the deceased had been killed by a passing train, but the wounds on the body did not sustain this theory, but rather indicated that murder and robbery had been committed. The deceased was identified as having been in company with another negro the evening before, and this companion of the dead man, who gave his name as Golden Carroll, and against whom there are many suspicious circumstances, was subsequently arrested and ledged in the jail here for safekeeping. This is the prisoner in whose case a "bloody coin" will probably play a prominent figure.

The letter of Colonel James D. Brady approving the action of the "honest-elections" convention is taken to indicate that the Colonel and General Mahone, who have so long been bitter political enemies, will lovingly work together in the traces as against "the enemy"—that is, the Democratic party.

In the late "honest-elections" convention, in which General Mahone was the chief figure, it was only the Democratic party that was abused, and that very bitterly at times, as the "enemy" of honest elections," and when Colonel Hoge said that "what General Mahone, Haskins Hobson, and General Walker could not do for 'the enemy." &c., he meant the Democratic party, if he did not say so in actual words.

JUMPED OUT OF THE WINDOW.

About 2 o'clock this morning Mrs. S. A.
Davis heard some one in her parlor, and,
going down stairs, saw a negro jump out of the window and run. Mr. Davis and his son. Joe, made pursuit, and were joined by Captain Jones and Mr. Conneily. One robber was caught as he was about to board a freight train, and another was shot at three times, but made his escape. Messrs Joe Davis and Connelly then went down to Wilson's depot, where they arrested three colored youths: Bedford Lee, who says that he comes from Bedford City, Tom Jordan,
also of Bedford City, and Antony Johnson, of Campbell Courthouse.
